Ash Wednesday Ecumenical Service 26 February 7:00 p.m.—This year is our turn to host the Ash Wednesday Ecumenical Service. You are invited to bring last year’s palm cross to church by Sunday 23rd as we need some to burn for the ashes to be used at the services on Ash Wednesday.

Collection of household items for Refugee family— Thank you to everyone that has contributed towards the collection of household items.

We will be delivering the goods on 23 February. There are still a few items needed. It has been stressed that we only collect what is listed because of problems with sorting and storing.

If you are happy to contribute items please contact me so I can prevent duplication and see how we are going. Items will need to be delivered here to church on Sundays or to our Onslow Anglican Office during office hours, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, 9am -2pm. Many thanks! Stories of Freedom—Lent Small Group Studies—We are combining across the Northern Suburbs cluster to host study groups exploring this freedom together. You’re welcome to attend any of these groups, however it’s best to commit to the group throughout the study to enable good relationships to form. Please contact the host / organiser for the group to say you’re coming and to confirm starting date – that way we’ll check groups have enough copies of the study too.
