The Sentence of the Day

Now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then we will see face to face. Now I know only in part; then I will know fully, even as I have been fully known. 1 Corinthians 13:14

Collect

God, infinite in purpose;
faithful watchers in the temple welcomed Christ to the Father's house;
glimpsed the glory and the pain to come:
give us the faith to wait and watch for you;
give us the perception, to recognise you;
through Jesus Christ our Lord who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Messy Church— Messy Church needs your help please.

We need some more people to help at Messy Church. It runs on the second Sunday of the month from 4pm to 6pm in the hall.

The children do craft work then head up to church for the celebration time. After this it's back to the hall for a meal together so you won't need to cook dinner that night!

You don't need to be a 'crafty person' - all the materials and instructions are there - we just need people to help the children do the crafts.

It's great fun and an important part of our missional outreach.

Please let Lee Sheppard know if you are able to help - 477 4338, 021 029 91480 or brianandlee@icloud.com.

Lenten Devotional 2019—We will be doing the Lenten studies again this year. We have placed our order and await the delivery. Order yours now at $5 from the office or Rev. Rosie. Contact info on the back of this pew sheet.

Notices Reminder—If you have a notice for Sunday services please have them into the office by Wednesdays. If it is a verbal notice please speak to Rosie before the service.

Parish Kitchen—Over the Christmas break the parish kitchen was sorted, cleaned, cupboards and drawers relined and new labels put on doors and drawers showing what is in them. It looks wonderful. Some things have been moved so if you are using the kitchen please check the labels and return things to their new home. Thank you from the kitchen cleaning team.
